at Terminal 3's (T3) departure hall. A cuddly 5-metre-tall bear, a 7-metre-tall rotating cupcake Ferris wheel, a pool of sprinkles, and candy cane lane beckon Changi's visitors into a world of sweet delight. As dusk falls each day, a spellbinding light and snow show will add a touch of magic to the evening. On selected Friday and Saturday evenings, look out for buskers, jugglers, and a live marching band performing holiday tunes.

Mr Jayson Goh, Executive Vice President of Airport Management at Changi Airport Group, said, "We invite visitors and travellers to immerse in the joy of the holiday season and join us for an enchanting experience at the Changi Festive Village. Our candy-themed activities add a sweet twist to the carnival, and promises to be a delightful haven for families and friends to create cherished moments together at Changi Airport."
