Changi Airport and Jewel Changi Airport bring year-end holiday cheer with Avatar and marine-themed festivities

SINGAPORE, 10 November 2022 – Changi Festive Village will be making a splash at Changi Airport and Jewel Changi Airport (Jewel) when it returns this year-end! From 11 November 2022 to 2 January 2023, the whole family can explore a range of activities including installations inspired by Avatar: The Way of Water which will be released in cinemas on 15 December 2022.

Stunning installations inspired by Avatar: The Way of Water are on show at Changi Airport's T3 Departure Hall, with a larger-than-life replica of the home of the Na'vi, the iconic characters from the movie. Explore their abode, see replicas of the residents, and witness wondrous light and sound shows. Then, head to the basement to relive your childhood with over 30 carnival game booths and rides at the T3 Underground Carnival and fuel your need for speed with go-kart racing.

At Jewel, snap picturesque moments by the iconic 16-metre-tall Prudential Singapore Jewel Christmas tree while surrounded by snowfall at the Shiseido Forest Valley, catch a glimpse of an exhilarating Avatar-themed Light & Sound show at the HSBC Rain Vortex, frolic with marine life on digital screens at Canopy Park, and enjoy family camps at the Changi Experience Studio.

Don't forget to get your year-end shopping done at Changi and Jewel for a chance to use your receipts to redeem Changi-exclusive Avatar: The Way of Water merchandise at S$9.90!

Activities at Changi Airport and Jewel Changi Airport

Visit the home of the Na'vi from Avatar at T3

Immerse yourself in the world of the Na'vi at T3's life-sized Marui Pod.

If you've seen the spectacular world of Avatar on the big screen and have always dreamed of visiting Pandora, now's your chance. See the home of the water-dwelling Na'vi clan, the Metkayina, at the T3 Departure Hall. Avatar: The Way of Water-inspired Marui Pod is a life-sized replica of the Na'vi abode, towering at over seven metres. Visitors can view life-sized replicas of the Na'vi natives and take Instagram-worthy photos with them. As darkness falls daily, the locale comes to life with dazzling light, sound and projection shows.

After visiting the Na'vi, take a piece of Pandora home with you from 18 November 2022 when you visit the Avatar: The Way of Water retail pop-up situated next to the Marui Pod. Navigate the luminescent tunnel entrance and emerge to shop from an array of Avatar toys, figurines, and glow-in-the-dark t-shirts.

Shoot to win and save the mangroves

Save the mangroves with your sharpshooting skills and learn about how you can be loving to your environment!

Head over to T3 Departure Hall (near Check-In Row 11) for Mangrove Adventures. Unleash the archer in you and save the mangroves from unwanted trash by shooting them down to win giveaways. Then, flex your crafting skills to create and bring home your own illuminated Mangrove Jellyfish. Stand to redeem discounted entry when you spend at the public areas of Changi Airport's terminals or Jewel.

Jewel's Canopy Park glistens at night

Be dazzled by the bioluminescence of Canopy Park and snap picture-perfect moments with the on-screen, interactive sea creatures and glowing lights all around.

As night falls, Canopy Park, located at the topmost level of Jewel, will glow into an ocean-themed sea of blue, pink, purple and teal with bioluminescent light displays. Step into a cave tunnel lined with dazzling ceiling lights and water effects projections for an immersive underwater-like experience. Be thrilled and interact with sea creatures such as the dolphin, seal and manta ray on screens using motion to trigger playful responses from them.

Feast your eyes upon mystical plants surrounding a pool of sparkling blue water, have a hand in weaving glow-in-the-dark corals, and snap Insta-photo moments throughout the park. At Petal Garden, watch as your footprints leave glowing blue bioluminescent waves on the interactive floor screen, and saunter past the four-metre-high smoke bubble tree to complete the experience. Watch in awe as the bubbles fall from the tree and pop with a smoking effect!

The ever-popular snowfall is making a comeback this year with hourly snowfalls around the park between 7:00 PM to 10:30 PM.

Wintry magic at Shiseido Forest Valley

Usher in the year-end cheer with the 16-metre-tall Prudential Singapore Jewel

Christmas Tree - take picturesque photos and reconnect with yourself!

Sponsored by Prudential Singapore (“Prudential”), the iconic 16-metre-tall Jewel Christmas Tree takes on an underwater theme this year. Visitors to Jewel can enter Shiseido Forest Valley via a tranquil oceanic tunnel, complete with underwater visual projections and audio to break away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. Get tips on mental wellness while being immersed in the restful space as you relax and re-connect with yourself during the hectic holiday season. Select from a variety of emotions at the interactive mood tracker poll located at the end of the tunnel experience. Visitors can also check-in using Prudential’s digital health and wellness app, Pulse by Prudential, and win Pulse points to redeem rewards.

For visitors who miss the sight of snow, Jewel has once again introduced snowfall this year-end season. Witness the wonder of snowfall against the alluring light installations that dot the lush landscaping every evening at the Shiseido Forest Valley from 7:35 PM to 10:35 PM daily.

Marvel at the Light and Sound show inspired by Avatar: The Way of Water at Shiseido Forest Valley

Catch the exclusive HSBC Rain Vortex Light & Sound show inspired by Avatar: The Way of Water. With a combination of sound and light choreography, marvel at the mystical water display of the 40-metre-tall indoor waterfall featuring the Avatar: The Way of Water creatures such as the Ilu and Tulkun. Visible from various spots around Jewel, do not miss out on this splendid masterpiece. Spending the night at Jewel on the Glampcation or the Changi Experience Studio Family Camp? You can enjoy these sights and sounds as well with your friends and family.

Mr Jayson Goh, Managing Director of Airport Operations Management at Changi Airport Group, said, “With the return of air travel and the re-opening of terminals, 2022 has been an exciting and eventful year for Changi Airport. To continue on a high, the beloved Changi Festive Village is making a comeback for the third year running. This year, we have a myriad of exciting activities that will delight even the youngest of visitors, including a time-travelling carnival, the breathtaking Avatar: The Way of Water-inspired centrepiece, relaxing glamps, sustainability-themed camps, workshops, and more. We hope that many will join us at Changi Airport for the year-end festivities, to soak in the holiday mood and create fond memories.”

Mr James Fong, Chief Executive Officer, Jewel Changi Airport Devt., added, “With the year-end festivities and holiday cheer drawing near, Jewel is excited to welcome back crowd favourite activities like the snowfall and Christmas Light & Sound shows. We are thrilled to reimagine and transform Canopy Park into a whimsical underwater world and showcase the specially composed Avatar: The Way of Water-inspired Light & Sound show. The uniquely designed Prudential Singapore Jewel Christmas Tree experience with the ocean tunnel reminds us all to take a breather and look after our mental well-being amid the festive rush. With our many curated activities, we look forward to welcoming you and your family to have a splashing and sparkling time at Jewel.”
