Changi Airport public area retail stores continue to absorb GST hike in 2024 to help shoppers save more

Coupled with Changi's "2xGST" promotion for nine days in January, shoppers benefit from double the savings

SINGAPORE, 28 December 2023 - Participating retail shops in the public areas of Changi Airport's four terminals [\[1\]](#) will continue to absorb the Goods and Services Tax (GST) in the new year, even as it increases from 8% to 9% come 1 January 2024. To enjoy the GST savings, shoppers simply need to sign up for the free Changi Rewards loyalty programme.

For nine days in January<sup>[2]</sup>, under the “2XGST” promotion, shoppers will also get an additional 9% off their purchases with a minimum nett value of S$30 after deducting all other discounts. In addition, customers who spend a minimum of S$60 and pay using Mastercard via Changi’s digital wallet Changi Pay will receive a S$9 Changi Pay return voucher credited to their account. Please refer to Annex A for details and the list of participating outlets.

Ms Phau Hui Hoon, Changi Airport Group’s Vice President for Landside Concessions, said, “We have been working with tenants to absorb GST for retail spend in the stores of our public areas for the past 15 years since 2009 and are glad that this partnership has continued till today. Coupled with the ‘2XGST’ promotion in January, we hope to not only bring our tenants more sales, but also treat shoppers to a little reprieve from the GST hike and spread some cheer ahead of the upcoming festive season.”

First launched in September 2010, the “2XGST” promotion has become one of Changi Airport’s signature campaigns.

New shops add vibrance to Terminal 2’s public areas

Since Terminal 2’s (T2) full reopening in November, even more shops have been added to the retail mix of its public areas. Eu Yan Sang, the renowned traditional Chinese medicine retailer, Lyngk Fragrances, which specialises in a wide range of scent products, and Baker's Well, where tasty holiday goodies abound, are just some of the newer retail shops where customers can enjoy GST absorption and the "2XGST" promo while stocking up for the upcoming Lunar New Year season.

While food & beverage outlets are excluded from GST absorption and the "2XGST" campaign, visitors who have had their fill of deals can fill their stomachs at a variety of new restaurants at T2. A-Roy Thai, known for its authentic Northeast Thai cuisine has signature dishes like Lemongrass Salad or Steamed Seabass with Spicy and Sour Soup. Their Changi-exclusive Thai Crab Curry Rice Noodles is also a must-try. For those hankering for Japanese fare, Ramen Keisuke Singapore will be sure to hit the spot with a showcase of specialty ramen infused with a local twist like the Changi-exclusive Bak Kut Teh (pork rib broth) and Laksa (spicy coconut soup) flavours. Ginza Tendon Itsuki's crunchy yet succulent tempura(fritters) set upon a steaming bed of rice will satisfy any tendon (*tempura*rice bowl) lover. The mezzanine level of Jones the Grocer, slated to open in January, boasts a restaurant, show kitchen, and island bar with sweeping views of the terminal. Diners can look forward to a myriad of global dishes, pizza straight from a custom-made oven, cocktails, and more.
